MISS JULIA TUTWILER.

The following lines are from the graceful pen of one of the most cultivated women of Alabama. A proficient in science, and in the dead languages, she is at present in Germany, acquiring col-lquid perfection in that language so dear to scholars. This little poem has already been in print before, and is not able to credit it to its author, for the locality where it was first published, is not given.

WHEN THE LAURELS BLOOM.

In his last days Commodore Maury expressed a wish that if his remains were carried to Fredericksburg, they should be borne through the blue ridge in spring "when the laurels bloom."

Round his dying couch his dearest,

Weeping, praying, ministering stood,

His fondlest and the nearest,

Of his name and kindred blood.

Sailors on the distant billow—

Men of every race and land—

Blessed the head upon that pillow,

Blessed that tress, that patent hand.

He had seen the aurora streaming

Over the trackless wastes of white—

Watched the nebula's awful gleaming

Through the weird rous Polar night.

Tropic lands had poured before him,

Wasteful wealth of life and love;

Laurel trees bending o'er him;

At his feet the coral grove.

Through the night-watch on the ocean,

As upon the deck he turned,

Wary of the waves' wild motion—

Not for these his heart had yearned.

But the Blue Ridge Mountain passes

Rose before him; either side

Clustering thick with rosy masses—

Laurel-blossoms the mountain's pride.

Now, when life's long voyage was over

And the blessed port in sight,

Still his heart looked back—a lover—

To each lake and lessening height.

[FOR THE REPUBLICAN.]

Mr. Editor: Will you permit me to give you a few local items. You are familiar with the name Union, as applied to a church and a neighborhood, both in Calhoun County Ala.

Now there is nothing wrong in this term as used above.—All right.

Years ago, the Union folks, agreed and covenanted, that they would give one day of every year, to the use of the Grave-Yard at Union Church.

May the 2nd, 1874, was set apart for this purpose.—Removing rubbish, decorating with flowers the Graves of loved ones, and planting evergreens.

Although Farmers were very busy owing to the late rains, yet many of all classes were on the ground, at an early hour, and took part in all the work.

After the working was over, a splendid and beautiful dinner, (such as the Union Ladies know how to prepare,) was set of which all partook heartily and cheerfully.

After dinner the audience repaired to the church where some beautiful pieces were sung, then followed some appropriate remarks and a very touching prayer by the Rev. Jas. M. Webster, thus closed the exercises of the day.

Mr. Editor: Our object in this is to stir up others if possible, to care for their Burying Ground.

There are Grave-Yards all through the country, many of which are almost totally neglected.

People cultivate farms and gardens, arranging them in reference to beauty, and convenience, this is right.—So should people adorn and cultivate the grounds, where repose their loved ones, and where too, they themselves are long, will sleep beneath the sod.

UNION.

The communication asking questions of the candidates, sent to this office some days ago, has not been published; not because we have any objection to the questions, but because the rule requiring a responsible name given the editor with political communications was not complied with.

There was a light shower of rain yesterday, something we have been needing for several days.

J. A. ADERHOLD & Co.

Special Contractors.

We have heard frequently since the reign of Radicalism in the country complaints of social ostracism. These complaints emanate invariably from one and the same source. The Radical scalliwags and carpetbaggers which have infested Southern society since the close of the war.

They have migrated here from abroad because of the generally worthless and selfish character they sustained where they came from, or they have sprung up among us, from the drug and drug bills of society, and crept by the means of ballot boxes, stuffed with the votes of fraud and ignorance, into places of profit and trust, that they could never have acquired to much less have attained, under any properly organized and well regulated system of Government, where the wishes and interests of the good, the intelligent, and the respectable portion of society are recognized and protected. And these complainers who have become a stench in the nostrils of all who discriminate between virtue and vice, between the good and the bad between the honest man and the knave, grumble at social ostracism. They complain of not being treated as honest and respectable people, of not being received into society as gentlemen, without regard to the position of voluntary social degradation they have assumed in order to attain offices of power and plunder. They trumpet all the principles and precepts of honor, honesty, and integrity under foot; they scorn public opinion, and with the vilest of the vile that they may reap the wages of corruption, and then demand social recognition and social equality. These are the men who sneak about in the night attending negro leagues, and negro lodges; who whisper to their ignorant, deluded victims, of the danger of the white people's power and influence; of the necessity of standing up to their party like men, of not letting the white folks run over them, and make slaves of their filthy dogs in the light of day, assuming airs of respectability, and presuming to thrust themselves on those they suppose are ignorant of their infamy. And because forsooth, they are placed at a discount in every decent community, they complain of Social Ostracism, of being slighted and not treated with proper respect by clever honest people. Let them!

Oh! it would be a millennial day for all the abandoned and vile of earth, who only prey, like all Radicals do, and fasten their vampire fangs on society, to suck its life's blood, and fatten in social corruption. Of course, the violators of law would be rejoiced to see all criminal prosecutions abolished and abandoned, and they received and recognized as respectable, worthy people. This would suit them exactly, and be as just and as reasonable as the demand made of respectable society.—Birmingham News.

Telegraphic.

TENNESSEE.

Nashville June 2.—A man named Murphy claiming to have come from Dover Stewart county, went to a farmer's house in Tipton county yesterday afternoon and but Mrs. Milton Donaldson's head open with an axe, killing her instantly. He also cut two great gashes in the head of a negro servant girl who subsequently gave the alarm. Murphy was chased and caught and confessed cutting of the negroess, but denied the murder of Mrs. Donaldson. The negroess, however identified him as having committed both deeds, and he was shot last night by citizens.

Washington, June 1.—The House Committee on Appropriations have agreed to the appropriation of $500,000 for the relief of the sufferers by the flood in Louisiana, Arkansas, and Mississippi and on the Tombigbee and Black Warrior Rivers. It is understood four hundred thousand will go to Louisiana. The delegation from those States were present and explained to the Committee. A joint resolution was introduced in the House to-day which provides as an amendment to the Constitution that United States Senators shall be chosen every sixth year by the people of the several States for the term of six years. The Tariff Bill, as it passed the House to-day, strikes therefrom matches and vinegar.

Chicago, June 1.—The Times publishes several columns of crop reports from various points throughout the States of Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Minnesota, and Kansas, from which it appears that on an average the acreage of wheat sown is much in excess of that of last year, and that the yield promises to be quite up to the average and in corn, oats and barley fully up to the average. An average amount of land has been seeded and the crops will be large.

New York, June 2.—Mrs. Michael Devine, while deranged, struck her husband on the head with a cooper's adz this morning, and murdered her three children, aged seven, four and two, by beating out their brains with a flat iron. Devine's wounds are probably fatal. He had been on a strike for a week past, and thinks that led to his wife's derangement.

MENTIS, June 1.

Thomas Carroll, white, was terribly cut in the abdomen by Henry Porter, negro, in a dispute over the Civil Rights bill.

Seeing is Believing

If in this liberal age there are persons to be found who are so blinded by prejudice as not to believe that a mediated stimulant is an item of immense importance in the catalogue of human remedies, we should like to witness the wonderful effects which Hostetter's stomach Bitters are now producing all over the country in cases of intermittent fever, rheumatism, bilious disorders, dyspepsia, nervous complaints, constipation, indigestion, mental depression and premature decay. To be sure these effects are nothing new. The great vegetable invigorant and its curative have been before the people for more than twenty-five years, and in every year of the twenty-five its popularity has increased and its sale has become larger. Yet there are no doubt many thousands of intelligent citizens who have never had an opportunity of observing for themselves the surprising changes which this unequalled tonic and alterative produces in systems which seem to be hopelessly broken, and in cases of disease which are not amenable to ordinary remedies. Probably many of these regard the statements made in relation to the salutary properties of the Bitters with some degree of incredulity; would that all such sceptics could see with their own eyes what the medicine is doing for the sick and feeble everywhere, what a staff of life it is proving to the aged and infirm, what a help in time of trouble to feeble women suffering from the complications and disabilities peculiar to the sex, what a protection to health and life in malarious districts, what a panacea for languor and depression, what a specific for all diseases in which the system requires to be vitalized and sustained. Of all stimulants it is the purest and safest, of all tonics the most genial, effective and agreeable, and of all alteratives the least violent and the most certain in its beneficial results.

We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Horace Waters & Son, headed, "WATERS' CONCENTRATED ORANGE," and for a description of them we can't do better than to copy the following:

A NEW FEATURE IN ORANGE.—Waters' Concentrated Orange.—The great merit of the concentrate is, that it approximates nearer than any other to the human voice. If we avert the attention from the instrument which this delicate addition is being operated, the impression is instantaneous that it is to the human voice under exquisite culture that we listen. Of course the origin of this improvement, and the exact manner in which its advantages have been made so prominent in this organ, are known to the patient alone; but we doubt if the inventor can make it plain, why the direct result has occurred. The effect of the concentrate is simply softening and vocalizing. It seems to catch a note that might have been shrill or reedy, and at once soothe it into something as sweet and musical as a human whisper. The writer was informed by Mr. Waters that on account of the popularity of the new stop, the instruments were bought up almost as rapidly as it was possible to manufacture them.—Brooklyn Union.

TRY IT.

Magie Aranea Liniment, a pure liniment compounded, will be found a never failing cure for all kinds of aches and pains. It has cured cases of rheumatism and neuralgia that withstood all other remedies.

READ THE EVIDENCE.

MADISON, STATION, ALA., Mar. 20, '70.

Messrs. Mansfield & Higbee:

DEAR SIR: I have been afflicted with rheumatism and neuralgia combined (as pronounced by several physicians) for twenty-two years. I have suffered more than a sound man could imagine; have tried every thing that was recommended to me, without receiving lasting benefit. My case has been pronounced an incurable one by several doctors of experience. Your "Magie Aranea Liniment" was prescribed for me by Doctor Capshaw, of Athens, Alabama, a few weeks ago. I used it with a faint hope and little faith in its doing me any good; but I am happy to inform you that I was very agreeably disappointed. I found relief from the first application, and slept soon after, which had been an impossibility with me the most of the time for the last several months, without first taking an opiate. On awakening after the first application, I applied the Liniment again, and soon dropped off to sleep, and have not had a severe attack since. I have used it two bottles. Although I do not consider myself entirely cured, I am able to walk several miles or ride horseback all day. I hope by continuing the use of the Liniment, it will eventually make a final cure. I have induced four or five others to try it—all of whom are well pleased, and will testify to its great relieving powers.

Saturate a Piece of Bread or Meat with gastric juice, and it will dissolve. This is digestion. Add to such a mixture a little alcohol, and it will not dissolve. This is indigestion. Beware, then, of tinctures, or tonics, or decoctions containing spirituous liquors. Shun all run "tonics," and rely solely on Dr. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, the finest digestive invigorant known, and free from the fiery curse of Alcohol. 4t.

LIMPID.

The Magie Aranea Liniment never spoils. It is a beautiful ruby colored fluid, no more greasy compound. It never becomes rancid, and will not stain clothing. It is possessed of wonderful penetrating properties, and has performed some very remarkable cures. It will stop pain in five minutes; cure any ordinary cases of rheumatism; and when used in conjunction with Mansfield & Higbee's Rheumatic Compound, their great internal remedy, there is no case of rheumatism it will not cure.

READ THE EVIDENCE.

HELENA, ARIZ. Sept. 25, 1863.

Messrs Mansfield & Higbee:

GENTLEMEN: I take pleasure in giving my testimony of a case which was remarkable for its severity, and equal remarkable in a manner of its cure. My brother has been a cripple for four years from rheumatism; his legs and arms were contracted so as to be of very little use to him. Many remedies were tried, but did not real good. We heard of your valuable medicine, and procured six bottles of the Magie Aranea Liniment, and two bottles of your Rheumatic Compound, which we used, and in three weeks he was sound and well.

Our Dormant Energies.

Our bodies are not as vigorous as our minds as clear as they might be. This remark is true of at least two-thirds of civilized society, and of these two-thirds, probably one-half is laboring under bodily infirmities of a character likely to shorten the lives of the sufferers. This is a melancholy exhibit and furnishes abundant food for reflection. Can the life be mitigated? Lack of vitality is the primary cause of most of the physical and mental suffering to which we are subjected, and therefore a vitalizing medicinal agent is the remedy required. Is there such a medicine? There is. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will rouse and energize the system and body when the life power of the mind is in a comparatively dormant state. The languid, feeble, depending invalid is not aware of the latent energies that underlies his debility. He thinks there is no element of vigor left in his frame, when the fact is that his physical capabilities are merely asleep and only require waking up. Let him stimulate and tone his animal machinery and endow it with more motive power, through the agency of this incomparable invigorant, and he will soon feel like a new man, or rather like a man who has received a new lease of life, and the requisite health to enjoy it. Many business men suffer from chronic languor and depression caused by too close application to business. Hard students are often oppressed with melancholy from a like cause. Mechanics and working men are affected in the same way as a result of over-labor. To all who are in this condition, from whatever cause, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will prove a singular blessing. It is a perfect panacea for physical debility and mental gloom. It strengthens the body, clears the mind and calms the nervous system; while as a remedy for indigestion, biliousness, constipation, rheumatism, and intermittent and remittent fevers, it takes precedence of all other medicines.

WAITING.
I have two little angels waiting for me
On the beautiful banks of the crystal sea;
Not impatiently wait my darlings there;
For smiles light up their brows so fair;
And their little harps ring out so clear,
So soothingly sweet to the faith's listening ear.
And they live in the smile of the Savior's love,
Who so early called my darlings above.

I have two little angels waiting for me
On the beautiful banks of the crystal sea;
Forever free from sorrow and pain,
Spotless and pure from all earthly stain,
Never in erring path to rove—
Safe in the bosom of infinite love,
Ere more evermore walking in light,
Those beautiful angels robed in white.

I have two little angels waiting for me
On the beautiful banks of the crystal sea;
When my weary heart is throbbing with pain,
And I faint would I lay my darlings again;
I look away from this earthly strand
To the beautiful fields of the "Better Land."

I will think of the angels waiting there,
And offer to God a thankful prayer.

I have two little angels to welcome me
When I too shall stand by the crystal sea.
When the Great Refiner His image my face
In the heart He has won by His saving grace,
And in robes of Christ's own righteou-ness dress
My soul shall seek the home of the blest
On the beautiful banks of the crystal sea
My darlings, still waiting, shall welcome me.

Extract from Editorial Correspondent of Tusculooosa Blade.
Montgomery May 23.

Most of these Northerners are Democrats and plainly spoken ones, at that. The few Republicans have the good sense and taste to keep their obnoxious politics to themselves. Without exception, all express their delight with Alabama, and of all places in Alabama, Tusculooosa fascinated them most,
both because of its unique beauty and the social hospitality of its citizens. At no other place in the State, have they been quartered under the roofs of private residences, or partaken of the food and drink of domestic tables.—They assert that they learned more about our Southern society in Tusculooosa than in all other cities that they have visited, combined. Several have assured me that in all their extensive travels North, East, or West they never beheld such a beautiful city. Could our people hear their expressions of admiration, they would be equally surprised, amused and gratified. Parker, who stayed at Mr. J. D. Spiller's—and who, by the way, is the jolliest of the Yankee crowd—is so overcome with admiration for Tusculooosa, that they have charged its name to Parke-sburg, and call it by none other.
He swears that he intends to revisit the place next year. We may rest assured that our little city will fill an important part in the descriptions that these editors will give of their sojourn in Alabama. It is certain that their visit will be pre-giant with good results to this section, for until they came, they confess that they labored under great error regarding our fair land and its people. With them, seeing has been believing, and the seeds of prejudice, aroused by the base misrepresentation of Northern adventurers, have fallen from their eyes.
Especially will Tusculooosa be benefited, as she is the Southern "apple of their eye."

We are all jaded terribly, and the programme of arrangements here in Montgomery is such as to keep us on the "go" almost every hour of the day and night, too. The danger is, that some of us will be killed out-right by the showering down upon us of excessive hospitality. One by one the Alabama quill-drivers have broken down, dropped off, and wended their ways homeward, till, at this stage of the game, only about a dozen answer to roll-call. Many have been placed hors du combat by visiting, too often, "the Governor of North Carolina."

The pastoral address of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, was read in the Conference at Louisville last Monday. Upon dancing by church members and operatic music in the churches they expressed themselves as follows:

Worldly amusements are denounced by Word of God and by that part of our general rules which forbids the taking of such diversions as cannot be taken in the name of the law of Jesus. This denunciation is explicit & comprehensive.
Amongst those indulgences which cannot stand this solemn test is the modern dance, both in its private and public exhibitions, as utterly opposed to the genius of Christianity as taught by us. When persisted in it is a justifiable ground of action by the church authorities.

We do not hesitate to say that no music should be introduced into public worship that is not decidedly devotional, that no tunes should be sung or hymns announced by our preachers which the congregation cannot join, and that the pastors of our churches in virtue of their office have general supervision of this as well as of any other department of public service. We give it also as our judgment that whenever instrumental music is practiced in our congregations, preludes and interludes should be avoided, since they intermit singing and consume the time allowed to the service.

HON. W. B. MODAWELL.

We republish the following described tribute to an able and worthy citizen from one of the best of our country exchanges.—Mont News.
The hearts of the good and true people of Alabama would rejoice at the nomination of the gentleman whose name heads this article for the position which is now held by the sealawag Alexander McKinstry of Mobile. We have known Mr.
Modawell for more than twenty-five years, and he has ever been faithful and true to the great principles of his party and his race and people. He has an excellent and ready mind, and with creditable zeal and industrious research he has stored it well with useful and practical knowledge, which with the qualities of the true gentleman and Christian have given him distinction and popularity in private and public life, and paved the way for higher honors and greater usefulness in the future. He is one of the best presiding officers in this or any other country, and possesses the honor, the sense and the magnanimity to treat deferentially those who may hold opinions contrary to his own.

Major W. B. Modawell is a native of North Alabama, and this fact would add to his popularity and influence in that section of the State. For many years he resided in Marengo county, but is now a citizen of Perry. He is a man of the people, a representative man, and one whom the people would be pleased to honor.

Give him McKinstry's seat, and the Senate will have a presiding officer of whom the State will be proud, and the body be presided over with honor, dignity, ability, and justice.—Clarke County Democrat.

Cheering News—Our Party United.

Our evening contemporary the Ledger prints the following extract from a private letter written by Col.
W. P. Chilton, from Tallapoosa county where he has been attending court.

"I am rejoiced to find among the people whom I have met a sentiment that favors discarding minor issues for the sake of harmony in the Convention which is to assemble in July.
I had heard much of local divisions in the Eastern counties as to other portions of the State. I had heard also of independent movements which would materially interfere with the success of the general ticket when nominated. But I am glad to state to you, that so far as my observation extends, together with the information I have been able to gather, I feel warranted in saying, that the party was never more united in point of genuine sentiment and the principles which constitute its true foundation than it is in East Alabama. The leader of the independent movement in this county in 1872, declares strongly for a Convention and strict party organization.
You may rest assured that our party will be united in the approaching campaign, and I will predict an increased majority of three hundred in Tallapoosa and other counties in East Alabama in proportion."

FROM THE CONEY STAR.

The white men in Alabama have no time for leisure. We must all go to work and redeem the Star-from the accused crew that control the ship of State. Let advance by the past and resolve to carry the next election. Inactivity is played completely out; work must be done.

From the Russell Recorder.

As we are on the eve of a great campaign, and success is the common end of all, union harmony, compact and thorough organization and discipline of this party as one solid phalanx with unbroken front, is necessary and will win. We but play into the hands of our political opponents by insisting upon the pretext of discussion of issues that will distract and divide the people, and render them indifferent to the paramount object—victory in November. Let all differences be reconciled.

St. Louis May 29.
In a cyclone here several houses were unroofed and sawboats lost their chimneys.

Defiance, O., May 2.)
A business square is burned.

Elwood, Ill., May 29.
Fifteen firms burned out. Loss $50,000.

France, The Wonder of the world

She has paid the indemnity to Prussia, according to the treaty of peace with that kingdom. That indemnity was $1,000,000,000. She paid the interest upon it while it was unpaid—say $100,000,000.
She supported an army of 50,
000 Prussians which occupied France until the indemnity was paid—say $150,000,000 more—$1,150,000,000. The end of the war found France desolate, and in less than three years she has paid this enormous sum, and not a Prussian soldier treads her soil.
It must be remembered furthermore, that this wonderful nation, besides meeting and extinguishing this enormous burthen, has paid

the expenses of its own Government including the war with the communes, has rebuilt houses, restored agriculture, and has re-established a newly armed peace establishment of great power. This example of France under all her trials is one the world may emulate. No nation ever gave a more admirable proof of its consistency and force—De-fated by gross negligence and incompetency, the French nation has risen, indeed like the fabled Phoenix from its ashes, and stands now the admiration of the world.

The Nashville "Union," of Thursday, announces another donation of $100,000 from Commodore Vanderbilt to the Vanderbilt University, "to be used as a building fund, in order that the University building may be completed in accordance with the plans and specifications for said buildings, which have heretofore approved by him."

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower slopes of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol.
The question is almost daily asked,
"What is the cause of the increasingly alarming condition of the Liver and Biliary system of Vinegar Bitters?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving medicine. They are the restorer and invigorator of the system.
Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of Vinegar Bitters in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle purgative as well as a Tonic, the longest and most successful of the Liver and Biliary system, in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of Dr. WALKER'S
Vinegar Bitters are: They are a Purifier, a Restorer, a Tonic, a Pain-killer, a Nervine, a Laxative, Diuretic, Sialagogue, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

PATIENCE DOW.

BY MARION DOUGLAS, IN MARCH AT-LANTIC.

Home from the mill came Patience Dow.

She did not smile, she would not talk;

And now she was all tears and now,

As fierce as a captive hawk.

Cautious of her faded gown,

She sat with folded hands all day.

Her long hair falling tangled down.

Her eyes gazing far away.

Where vast the fields, a silver line,

She saw the distant river shine.

But, when she thought herself alone;

One night, they heard her muttering low.

In such a chill, despairing tone.

It seemed the east wind's sullen moan;

"Ah! me! the days, they move so slow!

I care not if they're fair or foul;

They creep along—I know not how;

I only know he loved me once—

He does not love me now!"

One morning, vacant was her room;

And, in the clover wet with dew,

Showed some one had been passing through.

And, following the track, it led

Across a field of summer grain.

Out where the thorny blackberries shed their blossoms in the narrow lane,

Down which the cattle went to drink in summer from the river's brink.

"The river!" Hope within the sank;

The fatal thought that drew her back.

They knew, before among the rank,

White blossomed weeds upon the bank

They found the shawl she used to wear,

And on it pinned a little note.

"O, blame me not!" It read. "For when I once am free my soul will float to him! He cannot leave me then!

I know not if his right or wrong—

I go from life—I care not how;

I only know he loved me once—

He does not love me now!"

THE TURN OF THE TIDE

The Boston Post has the following in regard to the decoration of soldiers' graves:

It is because of the bravery shown by our Southern brethren in the war that our own victories have such lustre, and it would be as unjust to deny the sincerity of the great body of our opponents as to impute their courage. They fought for what they believe to be the right.

* * * The people of this country,

North or South, cannot afford to keep up the spirit of antagonism or distraction, which, invidious distinctions

in the decoration of the graves of their soldiers would naturally excite. If we are to have a genuine

Union—one of hearts as well as of hands—we must cultivate the amicable and perpetual lesson of the devotion illustrated on both sides of the great contest.

A Negro on the Social Equality Bill

Among the colored men in Washington battling for the Civil Rights

Bill, is John M. Langston, who, we believe, is now acting President of Howard University for colored students. Prof. Langston made a speech, near Washington, on Decoration Day, from which the fol-

THE LOVER'S REQUEST.

BY B. D. W.

I ask you not to think of me.

When Nature all is bright.

When every breeze is filled with glee.

When every heart is light.

But when the rooping billow heaves.

Along the barbed sea.

And round you fall the autumn leaves.

Oh! Then remember me.

I ask you not to think of me.

When round the social hearth.

Are met the friends of earth.

But when each happy form has fled.

And the home shall silent be.

Save the echoes of the early tread.

Oh! Then remember me.

And if I should sorrow ever cloud.

Thy fair and sunny brow.

And thy young heart become the shroud.

Oh! When at night or silent eve.

To pour your gentle prayers to heaven.

Oh! Then remember me.

TROUBLE IN THE CAMP.

We have several times referred to the dilemma in which the Radical party now finds itself.

Commenting upon it in our issue of the 18th inst. we said:

They are placed in this position:

To advocate social equality is to drive from the Republican party every white man not socially and morally dead.

To oppose the civil rights bill is to array themselves against the negro element, without which they would be utterly powerless.

The entire correctness of our view, is daily receiving demonstration.

The issue has at length been made—not by the white Republicans, but by the negroes themselves.

At a negro meeting held in Bullock county last week, a resolution was adopted, declaring they would support no man for office who did not favor the Civil Rights bill. Similar resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the blacks in Huntsville. We give their exact language.

The following resolutions offered by W. H. Council were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we fully endorse, and desire the passage of the bill now before Congress, known as Sumner's Civil Rights bill.

Resolved, That we shall not give our support to any candidate for office who is not in full accord with and does not openly express himself for the Civil Rights bill which recently passed the Senate of the United States.

Since the Huntsville meeting, one has been held in Mobile, which we regard as still more important, because called by Republicans who opposed the Civil Rights bill.

Judge Rice first addressed the meeting, declaring his opposition to the measure. At the conclusion of his speech, Jere Harrisson, from Dallas county, by far the most prominent negro in the State, replied to Judge Rice, declaring his entire approval of the bill, and that the negroes of Alabama demanded its enactment.

The end of all this will be that the negro State Convention, which is soon to assemble in Montgomery, will resolve—First, To black-bill every white man who declines to support the civil rights; and secondly, It will demand to have its negro, or more, on the State ticket.

It now seems the discussion in which the Democratic press has been engaged, as to whether we should accept the "race issue," was wholly unnecessary. The negroes themselves have determined the question, and framed the issue. On one side in the next campaign will be arrayed the advocates of social equality for the blacks. On the other will be found those who propose to defend the dignity, honor and rights of the white race.

We do not regret that the question is assumed in its definite shape. It is not a new question. It has been involved in every campaign in Alabama since the war. Heretofore, however, it has come disguised. Now it is squarely presented, so that there is no escaping it. Heretofore white men have declined to act with the Democratic party, but at the same time refused to announce themselves as favoring negro social equality. They can no longer do it. The negroes say they shall not; and so say the whites.

What say the people of Lee county? With this question presented to them, will they consent to vote for any man for any office who runs outside of the Democratic organization? We believe not.

"Outraged Her Usefulness."

Not long since, a good-looking man in middle life came to our door, asking for the minister. When informed that he was out of town, he seemed disappointed and anxious. He inquired as to his business, and replied:

"I have lost my mother, and as this place used to be my home, and as my father lies here, we have come to lay her beside him."

Our heart rose in sympathy, and we said:

"You have met with a great loss."

"Well, yes," replied the strong man with hesitating voice. "It is a great loss in general; but our mother has outlived her usefulness; she was in her second old age, and her mind was failing. She was weak as a child, so she was no burden to herself, and a burden to everybody. There was seven of us—sons and daughters—and as we could not find anybody who was willing to board her, we agreed to keep her among us a year or two. But I have had more than my share of her. For she was too feeble to be moved when my time was out, and that was more than three months before her death. But then she was a good mother in her day, and toiled very hard to bring us all up."

Without looking at the face of the heartless man, we directed him to the house of a neighboring pastor, and returned to our nursery. We gazed on the merry little faces which smiled or grew sad in imitation of ours—those little ones to whose care in our language is so sweet a word, "mother," and wondered if that day would ever come when they would say of us, "She has outlived her usefulness; she is no comfort to herself, and a burden to everybody else."

And we hoped that before such a day would dawn we might be taken to our rest. God forbid that we should outlive the love of our children! Rather let us die when our hearts are a part of their own, that our grave might be watered with their tears, and our love linked with their hopes of heaven.

Then the bell, tolled for the mother's burial, and we went to the cemetery to lay her to rest. The people kept steadily before the fact that State legislation can be as objectionable, and a party which is as unscrupulous in pandering to the ignorance of our colored population, and unblinking in their efforts to excite their prejudice and hatred to the four hundred thousand colored people who live in Alabama. The Observer says:

We have a forecast of the character of legislation that will be enacted if our political enemies are triumphant. We will have civil rights saddled upon us in the most disgusting and nauseating form by our State Legislature. Tied hand and foot we will be forced to submit to the outrage and shocking indignity as the prominent and leading men of the Radicals, either from choice or selfish purposes, do not hesitate to endorse social equality, and everything else that is repulsive in what they are pleased to call Civil Rights. # Independents So-Called.

An intelligent correspondent of the Opelika Times writes in the following wholesome strain:

There are white men enough in Alabama, if they will so determine, to make treason to race odious. A united, expressed hate, in word and action, is a scorpion scourge that none but a "Radical Thug" can withstand. Public opinion, strongly expressed, persistently employed and founded in truth, is the mightiest power to which men are subject. And that nearly every unselfish man in Alabama feels that these non-conformists are enemies, there is no question; and the people's silence has been misconstrued into respectable toleration. But however silent the people may have been heretofore, and with whatever seeming circumstances of position, the time has now come when we must know our foe, and knowing him spurn him. Not because he differs with us in opinion is he an enemy, but because he has no opinion and has deserted his race and blood without reason. That a black man should oppose, in his ignorance and prejudice, the Democratic party, is not unreasonable nor unnatural, and for so doing I can even respect him; but a Southern white man, to do so, forfeits name and color and social position.

Turn the fact as you may, it is true that every white man in Alabama who does not throw himself into the Democratic party and give to it his influence, is an auxiliary to Radicalism, and he helps to its establishment. In medicis veritas was never applied to the middle ground between Democracy and Radicalism. The man on the fence ought to be, and will be, smitten down in the coming clash of arms in November. "Independents" now are foes never to be forgiven—Radical allies! I, nor you, nor any man, will vote for the Democratic party in November. The vote is for color and blood, and intelligence and property, and law, and white supremacy. The Democratic party may take care of itself when the white man is enthroned—but now the question is of greater moment, and I am with men, my brothers, till another issue arise.

OLD WHIG.

CURIOUS CALCULATION.

There is something wonderful in figures; and numbers, when calculated, startle us by their immensity. We talk of millions and billions with little thought of the vastness of the sums we name. The lips may utter the words glibly, but our understanding fails to grasp their real significance. Take our own national debt as an illustration. Everybody knows it is large, but few have ever stopped to consider its appalling magnitude. A few calculations will not, we trust, be uninteresting to our readers:

Let us suppose that the national debt is, in round numbers, $2,500,000,000. If an experienced cashier was to commence counting this, at the rate of three silver dollars per second and work diligently eight hours per day, 300 days in the year, it would take him about one hundred years to complete the count.

If the silver dollars were placed side by side, touching each other, they would reach nearly three times round the world; they would pave a highway the width of Chicago's streets more than 200 miles in length.

If each silver piece be estimated at one ounce in weight, and the money loaded into carts containing one ton each, and driven one before the other, each horse and cart occupying two rods, the procession would extend five hundred miles.

Or consider that only about 1,000,000,000 minutes have elapsed since the birth of Christ, and that if one dollar had been put away each minute, day and night, since that event, the accumulation would amount to but little more than one-third of the debt this nation now owes. If this calculation was applied to England or France, whose national debt is nearly twice as large as ours, the result would be still more startling.

Endorsing Social Equality.

The Radical State Convention which met in Springfield, Ills. On the 17th inst., adopted the following as the very first plank in its platform:

1. Equality of civil rights having been guaranteed by the 14th amendment, such guarantee should be enforced by appropriate statutes so that the broad Edis of freedom and power may be over black and white all.

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE. FREE FROM ALCOHOL.

Grateful Thousands proclaim

Vinegar Bitters the most wonderful invaluable that ever sustained the sinking system.

No person can take these Bitters

according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs are not beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi,

Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee,

Connecticut, Arkansas, Iowa, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl,

Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country, during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In the treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary.

There is no cathartic for the purpose

equal to Dr. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR

BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with

Vinegar Bitters. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fortified.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Stomach, Coughs,

Tightness of the Chest, Dropsy, Sour

Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste

in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Inflammation of the Liver, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the Region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful affections, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

active powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remit-

tent and Intermitent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons

suffering in Pains and Minerals, such as Phthisis, Typhoid, Gold-batters and Miners, as they advance in life, are sub-
